Lucky Truck Driver Wins Giant $3.7 Million Progressive Jackpot Award Playing Scientific Games Bally TITANIC™ Video Slot at Sky City Casino in New Mexico

Jackpot Award Largest Ever on Bally-branded Slot Machine

Las Vegas – August 31, 2015 – Scientific Games Corporation (NASDAQ) (“Scientific Games” or “the Company”) presented a mega-sized ceremonial prize check to new multi-millionaire Thomas Babcock, who won $3,755,501.19 on July 16, 2015 playing the Company’s Bally TITANIC video slot machine at Sky City Casino Hotel in New Mexico.

Babcock, a 59-year-old Ohio resident, had been playing TITANIC for just a couple minutes when he won the top wide-area progressive (“WAP”) award on his third or fourth spin. The experience was his first time playing the TITANIC video slot, although he visits Sky City Casino two to three times per month. “It was my best friend’s favorite game, and I had sat and watched her play many times – now it is my favorite game.”

An over-the-road truck driver by trade who has two grown children, five grandchildren, and one great-grandchild, Babcock was shocked and in tears after finding out he had won more than $3.7 million. “I was speechless; I could not talk; I could not focus; people were rubbing me for luck and then going away to play; I thank you God and I thank you all!” he said.

Babcock said that since winning the gigantic award, he has retired from his job and plans to use some of the winnings for much-needed healthcare and to buy a new home. But most of all, he said that he’ll help his family and donate a large portion of his award to charitable organizations such as Habitat for Humanity. “I get more joy out of seeing the joy on people’s faces when I help them; this has been blessing to me and I want to pass it on.”

Scientific Games’ Bally TITANIC WAP penny slot game offers a top prize that starts at $400,000 and grows based on the amount of play.

Based on James Cameron’s TITANIC film, one of the highest-grossing films in history, the game takes players on an epic journey that features scenes from the blockbuster film and its beloved cast of characters – including “Jack” and “Rose”. Players choose from three different “classes”, spanning a 40-credit minimum and 400-credit maximum bet – allowing them to opt for first-class opulence or third-class thrills. Players who wager at First Class or Second Class levels have the chance to win one of three progressive jackpots – the Mini Jackpot or Maxi Jackpot, both awarded during the Mystery Jackpot Feature; or the potentially life-changing TITANIC top award which is triggered by five scattered 'Jack' and 'Rose' symbols in the base game.

"We at Scientific Games are so happy for Thomas for his record-setting win on one of our most popular video slot games," said Deron Hunsberger, Scientific Games' Senior Vice President of Sales, Americas. "The gigantic $3.7 million jackpot is the largest jackpot ever hit on a Bally slot machine, making this a historic moment for us and a truly thrilling event for Thomas and Sky City Casino. The chance of winning these enormous jackpots only increases the excitement of playing bonus-rich games like the TITANIC game that offer players so much interaction and entertainment."
